65, still going strong

On October 15th we celebrated that our Director and owner of the company, Mr. G.B. van Pelt, turned 65. In The Netherlands this age means that you can slow down and even stop working if you like to. Our director has no intention to do so, as his health is still good he does not even think about this option.

The staff of Cleve & Zonen B.V. arranged a little party and handed over a set of golden pens. Later that week, the family of Mr. Van Pelt arranged a surprise party for him and invited all loved ones, including the management of Cleve & Zonen. This was a party that will be remembered for quite some time.

Personal effects to Brazil

Please be informed that we can only accept personal effects for Brazilian inland destinations (via Santos or Rio de Janeiro) after final approval from our agent in Brazil.

Please check with our Customer Service, prior to booking.

Packing of dangerous goods

We would like to remind you of the fact that proper packing is required for dangerous goods. Please make sure that goods are properly packed as well as clearly marked with the correct labels. In case of incorrect packing and incorrect or missing marks, we have to arrange re-packing of the goods.

Rotterdam port and IMO-authorities do not allow any further transportation of the cargo, unless re-packed into UN-approved packing first. Re-packing will be done by a licensed third party and all charges involved will be billed to the shipper. More information regarding packing and labelling can be obtained from our Customer Service department.

The importance of "Port Marks"

Our CFS as well as our insurers once more emphasize the urgency to put so-called "Port Marks" on ALL packages. Too often packages are not port marked or not marked at all. In case of missing shipments or shortshipments in any kind of way, it is very hard to trace shipments without the proper marks. Also insurance companies will most likely reject any claims, because of the fact that shipments were not port marked.

Holidays in Belgium

Please be advised that our office and CFS in Antwerp are closed on the following days:

- Nov 1st , 2007 : All Saints' Day
- Nov 11th, 2007 : Armistice Day

"Gazellen Awards" 2007

We are proud to inform you that Cleve & Zonen has been nominated for the "Gazellen Awards 2007". Every year the Financial Newspaper together with the ABN AMRO bank, the Ministry of Economical Affairs and a few other corporations select a few Dutch companies who have established the biggest growth over the last year.

The winners will be announced on November 22 and while we are glad to be nominated, we do hope to win this award of course.
